

DESCENDANTS OF JACOB CHAPMAN
=====

Don Norman

1.JACOB CHAPMAN

Jacob Chapman was born at Staunton VA about 1755 and died in what is now Nicholas County WV between 1840 and 1850.

Jacob went to Greenbrier County VA by 1771 and acquired considerable land. He served in the militia at different times during the American Revolution and later received a veteran's pension. He was one of the rescue party that relieved Donally's Fort in Greenbrier County when it was attacked by Indians in May 1778.

He married Margaret Burns June 16, 1779. Margaret was probably a daughter of the James Burns who was killed during the attack on Donally's Fort.

By 1797, the family had moved to what is now Nicholas County WV, but Jacob kept one parcel of land in Greenbrier County until 1819.
